

Erin Carey – Barron

Erin has over 26 years combined experience as both dancer and teacher. She holds a B.S. in Child Development, Child and Adolescent Studies from California State University of Fullerton as well as a Master Degree in Education and a Teaching Credential in Physical Education. Her professional ambitions include teaching physical education at the High School level and coaching a High School dance team to compete at a national level. Erin is trained in jazz, hip hop, musical theatre, contemporary, lyrical, ballet, and tap. She has trained at various studios in Southern California – The Garage in Pasadena, The Edge in Hollywood, Ina Dance in Diamond Bar, and Talent Factory in Chino. She won her first National Solo Title at age six and was the principle dancer in the Nutcracker and Velveteen Rabbit for Orange County Ballet at age nine and eleven. She was also an Ayala song leader four year member and Varsity captain and Varsity Unity captain. During her time with Ayala song she won Most Dedicated and Most Spirited. Erin has successfully run a competition dance studio since the age of 18. She has also held the positions of Dance Team Coach/Choreographer for Townsend Junior High School, Competition Jazz Choreographer for Norco High and Alta Loma HS, and Coach/Choreographer for the Chino Hills Junior All American Football cheerleaders.

Erin is currently coaching and choreographing for Chino Hills High School Dance Team where she has trained a variety of dancers for the past 11 years. Her competition accomplishments in the High School Dance Circuit include: choreography and coaching of Coast to Coast 10 time National Medium Lyrical, Novelty, and Large Jazz champions with Chino Hills High School. Erin was also awarded the “Coach of the Year” award in 2017 from the CADTD State Board. She has also choreographed many national and regional top overall solo, duo, trio, and group dances in the All-Star and Dance circuit. Her incredible knowledge of choreography and technical foundations make her a highly sought after coach and choreographer.
